

French Gulch-Whiskeytown School

FGWS PARENTS AND COMMUNITY MEMBERS: Our wonderful Mr. Dude is available on Tuesday, November 7, to help us clean up the FG cemetery. He is a veteran from the Viet Nam era. He will speak with our students about the time he spent in the military and his memories from that chapter of our nation's history. Be sure to thank our living vets for their service.

CHANGING SCHEDULES!

Please note the following changes in dates previously posted:

Parent Conferences were originally set for next week. With the election on Tuesday, the Veterans Day Observance on Friday, Mrs B's ceramics class moved to Thursday because of "no school" on Friday, not to mention the school's annual FG cemetery cleanup and refreshing of American flags placed on veterans gravesites- our eyes were beginning to cross. Instead of a mad flurry of activities on top of parent conferences, we changed conferences to the week after next.

PLEASE NOTE: Conferences will be held November 14, 15 and 16. These will be minimum days- 1:35 dismissal.

FGWS CARNIVAL

What a great carnival we had! Thank you to everyone who donated time and goodies. The kids had a ball. A special shout out to Miss Rachel and Renee for baking a bazillion cupcakes and cakes, Jake and Brittany Dayton for building two booths, Lesley Pearson for conducting the every popular donut on a string eating event. The big kids made a stellar fishing booth for the littles. It all was delightful.

Here are some of the pictures from the day. More on the back!

SCHOLASTIC BOOK ORDERS are due next Thursday. This will give Mrs. B enough time to place the orders and receive them back before Thanksgiving break. Thanksgiving week is a great time to cozy up with a book, a cup of hot cocoa and read. Remember that reading aloud is a wonderful family activity that is as enjoyable for adults as it is for kids. The memories are priceless.
